Tomorrow’s Lenten Organ Recital
John Walko will conclude the 2002 Lenten Organ Recital Series on Friday, March 29 with a short concert beginning at 7 P.M. It features contemplative works of two composers from the early 20th century—Englishman Herbert Howells and American Bruce Simonds.

The organ’s newly-installed E.M. Skinner English horn stop will be heard for the first time. Plan to come in time for this prelude to our Good Friday service. At the end of the recital, there will be a period of silent meditation, followed by the Tenebrae Service at 7:30 P.M.

Congratulations from Mitchell
Congratulations on a superb performance of Beethoven’s masterpiece last Sunday. You sang with precision and emotion, and, together with a first rate orchestra and superb soloists, made something very special happen as was evidenced by the enthusiastic ovation you received. Congratulations to all of you and thank you most profoundly for all you put into the music—last night and over the past eight weeks. And thanks to all platform movers, music stand carriers, program stuffers, stage managers and reception organizers. What a wonderful way to begin Holy Week. We have more fun and excitement for Easter Sunday!
